Notice of Seller’s acceptance or rejection of an Order shall be submitted in writing to Buyer within two (2) business days from the Order’s issue date. Notice of rejection shall state reason for rejection and allow Buyer two (2) days to correct any non-compliant terms and conditions or attachments incorporated by reference. Seller may not disclose the existence of any Order(s) or the items to be supplied hereunder without Buyer’s prior written consent, except to Subtier Suppliers who shall have the same responsibility.

2. DELIVERY: Delivery must be in strict compliance with the schedule contained in an Order and shall be made by Seller at such times and places and of such items and quantities as are specified by Buyer. Goods fabricated in excess or in advance of Buyer's requirements contained in an Order are at Seller's risk. Buyer reserves the right to return to Seller, at Seller's expense, all Goods received more than five (5) calendar days ahead of the required delivery date. Buyer reserves the right, without loss of discount privileges, to pay invoices covering items shipped in advance of the schedule on the normal maturity after the date specified for delivery. If Seller fails to meet its scheduled delivery dates and Buyer elects to call for expedited shipments, Seller will pay the total cost incurred. Seller shall be responsible for any additional charges resulting from any deviation from Buyer's routing instructions. Should Buyer accept Goods which are not delivered on or before the required delivery date, which option Buyer reserves, the Seller shall be liable for all additional costs incurred by Buyer because of such delay(s) including, but not limited to, additional or premium transportation charges, special handling expenses, and costs to Buyer to install the materials out of normal manufacturing sequence in addition to other remedies available by law to Buyer. Title and risk of loss shall remain in Seller until Goods are delivered to IncoTerms 2010 Buyer designated point specified in an Order. Notwithstanding such delivery, Seller shall bear risk of loss or damage to Goods purchased hereunder from the time that Buyer gives notice of rejection of Goods pursuant to the inspection provisions of this Order. If Seller encounters or anticipates difficulty in meeting the delivery schedule, Seller shall immediately notify Buyer in writing, giving pertinent details; provided however, that the receipt of such data shall be for information purposes only and shall not be construed as a waiver by Buyer of any delivery schedule or date or of any rights or remedies provided by law or this Order. If Seller fails to make delivery promptly and regularly, as required by an Order, Buyer may, in addition to other remedies available at law, terminate these Terms and Conditions and all Orders issued hereunder, or the whole or any part of an Order in accordance with Paragraph 16.1 entitled "Termination for Default." Nothing contained in this Paragraph shall prevent termination by Buyer under the provisions of the "Termination for Default" Paragraph of these Terms and Conditions.

3. SHIPPING INSTRUCTIONS: Seller agrees to prepare and properly box or crate Goods for shipment so as to prevent damage in transit, to comply with Buyer's shipping and routings instructions, comply with appropriate export requirements and to describe the Goods on the bill of lading in conformity with appropriate freight classifications. Any additional charges resulting from failure to comply with this provision, excluding incidental and consequential damages, shall be charged to Seller. Each container must be marked to identify contents and quantities without opening. Packing lists, certificate of conformance, or when applicable, certifications, including certifications for time sensitive materials (which shall identify the type of material, expiration date, lot or batch number), must accompany each shipment and must have only one (1) purchase order per supplier packing sheet. The location of the packing list must be clearly marked on the container. When multiple containers are used, the packing list will show the items in each container. Multiple containers will be numbered consecutively, for example, 1 of 4, 2 of 4, etc. Buyer's purchase order number and Buyer's address must appear on all invoices, packing sheets, delivery tickets, shipping orders and bills of lading. Buyer assumes no obligation for materials shipped in excess of quantity as shown on an Order. Rejections, delays in delivery or delivery in advance of required delivery date, and/or invoices and/or shipping documentation, errors and/or omission will be considered just cause for withholding payment without loss of cash discount privilege(s), with payment being made pursuant to the Order delivery date, or the errors and/or omissions have been corrected. Unless otherwise specified, the price set forth in an Order shall include all charges for Seller's packing and crating, cartage and transportation cost to Incoterms 2010 designated point specified in an Order. Buyer shall be responsible for all local, state, and federal excise, sales, and use taxes when applicable. Seller shall provide a "Commercial Invoice" for all Goods imported to Buyer, which shall contain the description, value and country of origin of the merchandise being imported. The Commercial Invoice shall be signed by the Seller, Seller's shipper or Seller's agent as required for Customs entry and shall be prepared in accordance with 141.86 of the U.S. Customs Regulations. The Commercial Invoice presented to Customs must contain certain pieces of information in order for Customs and the broker to be able to determine the classification of the merchandise. Seller should reference The US Government's Customs and Border Protection web site, for more detailed instructions on information required on the Commercial Invoice. Any inaccurate or misleading statement of fact in a required document may result in delays in release, detention of Goods, increased review by import specialists or penalties against the importer. Even if the inaccuracy or omission was unintentional, the importer may be required to establish that it exercised due diligence and reasonable care. Seller is responsible for and agrees to indemnify Buyer for any and all fines, damages, losses, expense, attorney fees, court costs, etc., that result from Seller's failure to comply with the Commercial Invoice requirements.
